Harry Smith Named Captain of Wolverton Shows Ways | Apparently he is to be relied on as a big the Newark Indians.

NO WOLGAST-RIVERS BOUT

McCarey Takes Violent Exception to a Message from Tom Jones and Sputters Back.

Harry Smith, the former National League catcher, will captain the Newark team of the International League this season. The selection of Smith was made by "Iron Man" Joe McGinnity in Petersburg, Va. yesterday, where the club is training. He is to be director general and have complete charge while in the game, even with Mo-Ginnity in the box. When Smith is not the mantle of captain will fall upon Eddie Zimmerman, the third baseman, who was with Brooklyn most of last eason. Smith began playing professional baseball with the Philadelphia Athletics 1900. After being there for two years he went to Pittsburgh and played for seven years. In 1909 he became a membe of the Boston Nationals, succeeding Frank Rowerman as manager. In the latter part of 1910 he was sold by Boston to Brooklyn. make way for Fred Lake as manager. He remained on the bench with Brooklyn last year and was sold to Newark by Charley Ebbets this spring. He is a resident of Massillion. Ohio.

The proposed boxing bout between Ad lightweight champion of the world, and Joe Rivers, of Mexico, a leading candidate for the title, on July 4 in Los Angeles appears to be broken off. The reason Hes in the exchange of the following telegrams, made public yesterday, between Tom McCarey, of the Vernon Athletic Club, and Tom Jones, manager of Wolgast. On March 18 Jones wired to McCarey:

"Wolgast and whole family had big laugh at your joke. We are ready to talk business, and will work July 4, but terms must be reasonable. You have first chance to land us, and have numerous propositions. Our previous terms stand. If not satisfactory will negotiate elsewhere.

McCarey took violent exception to this message as his quick reply indicates:

"The wording of your telegram is an insult to a man of my standing. If you consider $12,500 offer as a joke, then you are not the man to be managing a world's champion. Keep on 'laughing' at $12,500 offers and you'll be managing Billy Papke Wolgast will not be asked to box here again as long as he is managed or. rather, mismanaged by you. Have another

Keating, of the Xavier club, won his heat easily in the 300-yard handicap, but in the final he failed to get up. J. W. Richmond, of the New York Athletic Club, started from scratch and also got shut out. J. J. Sullivan, a Fordham runner, with 11 vards, won the decisive heat. The presence of M. W. Sheppard on scratch in the 1,000-yard run lent interest to that contest. A large field started, the limit men receiving 60 yards. Dick Egan, also of the Irish club, received 10 yards. At the outset O. Michaels, of the St. Bartholomew Athletic Club, and I. Weinberger, Sheppard got moving slowly, so that after running two laps he was still last and Sheppard had not improved his position. Weinberger and J. J. O'Neill fought it out all through the bell lap, the first named winning by two yards. Sheppard finished back in the ruck. The New York Athletic Club won the point trophy, with a total of 19 points. Dancing followed the games.
